

3-DAY WALK for Breast Cancer comes to Del Mar

Friday, November 20, 2009
7:30 am to 9:00 am

LET'S PAINT THE TOWN PINK!

Once again, the 3-Day Walk for Breast Cancer in San Diego is beginning in Del Mar. Del Mar Village Association is proud to host an official cheering station in support of the nearly 4,000 people who participate in this amazing event. The walkers will come up Coast Boulevard to 15th Street, and right onto Camino Del Mar.

We will decorate the streets with pink balloons and ribbons, and will pass out stickers to each walker. Del Mar's lifeguards and fire fighters will be present to show their support. The Torrey Pines High School cheerleaders and band will also be on hand to turn Del Mar into an unforgettable pep rally!

En Fuego is the official donated water drop-off station. This is a great way to show your support. Drop off your bottled water at En Fuego by Thursday, November 19th.

We need your help to make Del Mar one of the most memorable parts of their journey.
